Ackerman had vision of boating downtown

by JANE POLZIN

Did you ever dream about spending a wistfull summer afternoon boating on the Chain O' Lakes and then paddling through the area's many channels right into downtown Antioch?

Charles N. Ackerman did.

He spent most of his life acquiring land and digging channels to see the realization of that dream.

Although he died before the ambitious project could be completed, the many channels he has made have extended the lakes and provided the potential for future home sites in land that was formerly a slough.

ACKERMAN GOT HIS start in 1923 with a wheelbarrow, when the idea of channels into downtown Antioch came to him while he was at Indian Point.

Assessment rolls are published

The assessment roll of Antioch Township as certified by the County Supervisor of Assessments appears on page 18 - 23 of this issue of the Antioch News. Every property owner of Antioch Township should make it a point to check the amount of his assessment.

Any property owner who objects to the amount of his assessment should file a complaint in writing with the Board of Review, Room 603, Lake County Administration Building, Waukegan, Illinois. Property owners will have 20 days from date of publication within which to file complaints.

He envisioned a day when a motorboat could start from a channel along Rte. 21 and never stop until it reached the Fox River in Wisconsin.

Around 1927 he purchased a tractor, sought the reclamation of 200 acres of swamp land just west of Rtes. 59 and 173, where he began . digging channels from 12 to 15 feet deep.

The laborious digging moved soil, peat moss and marl from the bottom of the slough to sloping banks.

AN INDUSTRIALIST, Ackerman is most known for his invention of the toggle screw anchor, an interlocking device still known world-wide by the Ackerman name.

The patent was given to Ackerman-Johnson, representing Ackerman and two partners, who were engaged in the business filling in swamp at a friend's summer home 'of repairing industrial sewing machines at the time.

Although a new patent wasn't received after 17 years, the Ackerman name still holds.

His wife, Lillian vividly described his feeling of accomplishment, when she told of the times they would examine a building under construction and her husband would ask a workman what kind of fastener he was

"Ackerman, of course," was the reply.

A self-educated man, Ackerman got his start in business by inventing and selling desk and extension phones.

As the digging slowly progressed, it proved to be a very difficult task, with the tractor often getting bogged down in mire. He purchased platforms to prevent the banks of the Service held for Mrs. Gaston, former owner of Antioch News

by JANE POLZIN

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret E. Gaston, 90, former co-owner of the Antioch News for nearly 50 years, were held Nov. 3 at the Strang Funeral Home.

The Rev. Stephen Williams of the United Methodist Church of Antioch officiated. Interment was held at Hillside Cemetary.

Mrs. Gaston died Oct. 31 at McHenry Hospital.

She had been an Antioch resident since she and her husband, Homer B. Gaston, purchased the Antioch News in 1926.

THE GASTONS PURCHASED the paper from Publisher John L. Horan, who felt the need for "a rest from the grind of newspaper work," according to a Sept. 2, 1926 Antioch News article.

Gaston was engaged in the printing business in Richmond for more than eight years and had "an extensive acquaintance in the western part of the Antioch newspaper field," according to the article.

He was the former owner of the Richmond Gazette and the Genoa City Broadcaster.

The Antioch News, which began as a small handbill printed on colored paper about 1875, changed hands three times prior to the Gaston purchase.

IT'S FOUNDER, J.J. Burke, sold it in 1901 to A.B. Johnson, who conducted the business until 1920, when it was sold to the firm of Horan, Wood and Woodhead, Later, Horan succeeded as sole owner of the paper.

He sold it to the Gastons, who owned and operated it until June 1971 when it was purchased by Joseph Rush. He published the paper until May 1974 when it was acquired by Jerry Pfarr. Lakeland Newspapers purchased the paper in April 1979.

Under the direction of the Gastons, the Antioch News was "a very, very fine weekly," said former Publisher Joseph Rush.

The Gastons operated the paper with their sons before the advent of television and radio and "did a super job," he said. The paper was "the only contact the community had with the outside world."

THE ANTIOCH NEWS, which featured national as well as local news, had "outstanding writing," much of it written by Gaston himself, Rush said.

He recalled the excellent coverage of the Jack Dempsey-Gene Tunney fight on Soldier's Field in Chicago, as well as the fine reporting of the beginning of the city of Zion.

Gaston was a "faithful and honest journalist" who had "quite a burden of respon-(Continued on Page 5)

Mrs. Weber to be named village trustee

The appointment of Mrs. Mabel Lou Weber as village trustee to fill the term of her husband, Arnold Weber, who died Oct. 25 is expected at the next meeting of the Antioch Village Board.

Mayor Michael J. Haley announced that he was pleased she has chosen to accept the position.

Trustee Arnold Weber was elected to the board in 1971 and re-elected in 1975 and 1979. He served on the board's license and civic activities committees.

His position on the board will expire with the next general election of the village in 1981.

Haley appoints Chief Miller police captain

Antioch Police Chief Chuck Miller was appointed to the rank of captain by Mayor Michael J. Haley at a meeting of the village

The change in rank from lieutenant to captain was made because of the "great strides made under his leadership," Haley said.

Miller is presently an appointed official with his present rank of chief and a village employe as a captain, the mayor explained.

Bill Barr, chairman of the general Membership Committee, said, "It is my hope that all interested merchants both in special service area Number One and Two will be present so that knowledgeable information can be obtained so that they, as members of the Chamber, can indicate to the board their respective wishes."

Letter To The Editor

THROW A BASH? Editor:

On Tuesday, Oct. 30, Antioch's Big Brass threw an appreciation party at the new firehouse for the oldtimers and a "choice few."

Through past performances, I expected to be among those present, and was already prepared to pen an article on the night's events, and take photos. What a dreamer.

Since I was, at last count; the only one not connected referendum in the news media (see both local papers of 11-16-77) I certainly thought this plug would admit me to the inner sanctum.

In my daily strolls through town, where I meet hundreds of folks, I strongly urged the passage of this proposition.

negative views, but then, this is always par for the course. I was 100 percent for the idea, and made my feelings known, as I'm prone to do at times, only after looking at the firehouse for so long on the outside, you may fully appreciate my consternation, when my bid for the shindig, to be inside, didn't materialize.

And yet, how elated the big brass was when my articles appeared in public print. How much they appreciated my backing. So much so, that when the time came to show this, their small memories went blank.

Nevertheless, · my spies were present at said shindig, and filled in the gaps.

I was sure amazed at quite a few of those in attendance, enjoying the hospitality of the village fathers, because they were among those that disagreed with me, and either voted a definite No!. or never left home on election day.

Ah, well, we encounter a little deceit and deception along the way, don't we? Even our Lord had them at the Last Supper. Perhaps. some of the big brass has rubbed off on the voters.

However, the above won't alter my strolls through Antioch, a village I've come to with the establishment to call home, and love, and ensupport the fire facility joy writing about, as my past articles prove.

I'll praise the village crews - the school board the fire and rescue squads that are second to none — the town fathers (when they remain just that — fathers, and not politicians) our new and improved police depart-Ah, yes-at-times_I_met_ment; and thank_God_that_ Antioch has stalwarts like Jim McMillen, Barney Barnstable, Ed Simonsen et

So, in retrospect, and to keep the record straight, any future invitation to said firehouse would be facetious.

I'll still see it on my beat. Russ Fairchild, Antioch

As the tremendous project continued, he made several archeological finds.

One was the perfectly preserved skull of an Indian woman, who was about 28-years-old, according to the 1939 edition of the History of Lake County, in which he was listed.

THE SKULL related "back to a fairly recent period of Indian occupation," according to the history.

But that was not the most interesting of his

He uncovered ancient beaver dams and trees, preserved for years in the slough waters. Some pieces of the trees were taken to the Field Museum in Chicago, where they were determined to be of "great antiquity," the history stated. "It is impossible they can be less than 20,000 years old."

On the wood were marks of beaver teeth of "great comparable size," according to the lived in Antioch for about 30 years. history. Some of the prints corresponded in size to the proportions of ancient beaver skeletons in the museum, when beavers grew to be the size of St. Bernards, it reported.

BONES OF DEER, elk and moose were also uncovered.

Absorbed in the massive undertaking of digging the channels, Ackerman made no effort to subdivide the land.

On Indian Point, off of Ackerman Rd., named after the man who built and maintained it, he uncovered an Indian burial ground. In it were the remains of an ancient burial ground of a civilization living in the area some 400 years before.

A BRILLIANT MAN, he "constantly was looking to improve things," said Mrs. Ackerman, who enjoys the playground paradise of the land her husband developed.

"He could forsee the channels and the enjoyment of boating people could enjoy."

"Time ran out," she added. Some residents feared the channels would depreciate their property values, but many recognized the possibilities of his dream.

up to $8.5 million on satellite outpatient facilities in the area may be a bad investment for the hospitals and are not needed to improve the health of the community, a spokesman said. The Health Systems Agency for Kane, Lake and McHenry :Counties (HSA/KLM) arrived at this conclusion after reviewing a staff analysis of physician availability and hospital patient-origin data.

The health/planning agency's board of directors voted to go on record in opposition to each of the three facilities proposed by St. Therese, Condell Memorial and Highland Park hospitals. The projects have received non-renewable construction—said. Existing clinics and permits from the State of Illinois. Had the permit be able to meet current and requests been submitted after July 1979, each hospital's proposal would have been subject to a full review by HSA/KLM and the State.

The HSA report criticized the emergency room facilities proposed by St. Therese and Condell. Current philosophy and practice calls for paramedic units to stabilize emergency cases at the scene before transporting them to the nearest full service hospital emergency room. Outpost emergency rooms are contrary to his philosophy in that they may delay patient access to complete diagnosis

The report states that a hospital's service area changes over time and is related to the office location of its medical staff. Thus, the construction of outpost The hospital plans to spend physicians offices appears to be an effort by the hospitals to maintain and perhaps expand their market areas.

HSA/KLM is concerned that the net effect of the three proposed projects will be to cancel out each hospital's effort to maintain or increase their share of patient admissions. Therefore, from the hospital's perspective, the construction and operating costs may well be wasted, according to a spokesman.

From the larger community perspective, HSA/KLM "cannot agree that these projects are needed to improve the health status of the community; or to improve accessibility to services," a spokesman physician offices appear to foreseeable future demand for health care services, he added.

The proposed outpatient clinics and physician office buildings might be useful in attracting additional physicians to the area. Assuming that these additional doctors admit their patients to the parent hospital, the result could be an increased number of patients from communities surrounding the new outpatient facilities, according to the report. However, the report finds no need for additional doctors, citing population and physician count data which indicate "an abundant supply of primary care physicians throughout Lake County."

The Sequoits qualified for the state tournament for the first time in the school's history with the team's win over Grant 28-6.

Antioch's Varsity squad completed the regular season games with a 6-1 final record in the Northwest Suburban Conference, sharing the championship with Warren.

Grant jumped out early with a 6-0 lead and the Sequoits settled down, their offense controlling the rest of the game backed by good solid defense.

The team "ran well and threw well when we had to," said Coach Steve Wapon.

GREG STEVENS saw his best game "rushing-wise," Wapon said. He had 15 carries for 102 yards, followed by Mark Pomazak's 21 carries for 85 yards and Denis Flaschner's 16 for 62 yards.

Tim Plett had two touchdown passes caught for 32 yards, leading the team.

Antioch had 56 rushing plays while Grant had 22. ds and the Bulldogs 179, 118 on rushing.

Defensively, Steve Jennrich was credited for an interception and "good defensive play" by Wapon.

"THE EXCITEMENT level is very high," Wapon said. Seven thousand people or more are expected for the Rockford game, he added.

"We're really looking forward to it. The kids are going to be ready to play."

Wapon credits the coaching staff with much of the team's success.

A "tremdendous scouting team" consisting of Del Pechauer and Mike Gordy has helped the Sequoits find out what they're in for prior to each game, he said.

Tom Baba and Steve Scotthave acted as spotters for Antioch, sighting weaknesses from the stands.

Roy Nelson, former head coach, has shared his many years of coaching experience with the team, he added.

New Park Avenue Mall set for grand opening following story on the Park makes and models. As he Avenue Mall, which will celebrate its grand opening this month, was written through a combined effort by mall merchants.)

Many of you remember the Ford garage, which was of service to Antioch from 1915 to 1977.

It's future uncertain, it sat for awhile. During this time an idea was forming in the minds of Ray Scarpelli and John Teresi. Their little dream is now a reality. Come on, I'll show you.

The first place we'll visit is King's Drug Store. Although they have an entrance on Main St., the store is first in line of the mall's seven occupants.

· I guess they like to be number one, as are the owners Jim Pisano and Wayne Vivirto, they're "aces." Nancy Knight is their right hand gal and helps things run smoothly. It's a one-stop shop, with a variety of items for everyone, be it your daily dose or daily paper.

As we walk along, Kirby Vacuum Cleaner Company is next.

Bob Cutter has been with the company for ten years. He is pleased with his move from Kenosha, to Antioch.

Prospective buyers have a nice selection of useful gifts, such as carpet shampoos and oil lamps. The maindoes not keep Bob busy,

(Editor's Note: The although he repairs all other share the same enthusiasm says, "I sell the best and repair the rest."

> The Yellow Brick Road is next on our jaunt. Pat Folbrick and Ginny Henning run the store together and they have the most fashionable infant and childrens clothing that can be imagined.

The decor and layout promise a relaxing day of shopping and yes mom, let the little ones play on the slide!

Now we will visit the Park Avenue Gallery. Maybe you knew it when it occupied the main tunnel of the mall, known as the Little Gallery. New location, new name, new owners, but still the ideal shop for the perfect gift and just the right card. Sue Siwula and LoAl Clark enjoy the business very much and are blessed with a part-time worker, Fran, who really helps keep things together.

Ahead of us now is a fantastic store. Old goodies and new ones — something for everyone! The Ol' Attic, handmade creations are their specialty and every trinket, object, wall ornament and knick knacks are all special in their own way.

Silk flower arrangements are designed exclusively for you - for any occasion. Cathy Haley and Gale Fields have been in the business for tenance of Kirby Vacuums three years and really enjoy working together. They with Aunt Lorraine. They couldn't do it without her.

Sue Koppa and husband Jim are really into wall coverings. Here we are at The Gilded Cage. Their store is a very comfortable way to redecorate a room or a complete house. Their books are fantastic and the service is superb.

They also carry a large selection of wood and ceramic bathroom accessories. Also, for the bathroom, is a large variety of soaps - pastel colors of delicately scented guest soaps and a masculine soap on a rope. Shower curtains and towels are a must in any washroom, and Sue or Terry will be glad to show you, so stop in.

If I haven't made any waves with you readers yet, I know Tom Suforna can. Completing our tour is his hair salon. Whether it's Tom, Lonna, Allan or Albert, you will be treated like and feel like a king or queen. Their big plus is making you happy — if you choose your own style or they choose one for you - there will be no regrets.

Just think, if they take time out to make themselves look so good, imagine what they'll do for you!

The mall's grand opening is Nov. 14, 15, 16 and 17, so come on folks, take a stroll through Antioch's enchanted walkway and say hi to the new occupants of the Park Av. Mall.

OLD LOOK — Many years before Park Avenue Mall was even idea, garage was only service available in present location of mall, other than Main St. stores.

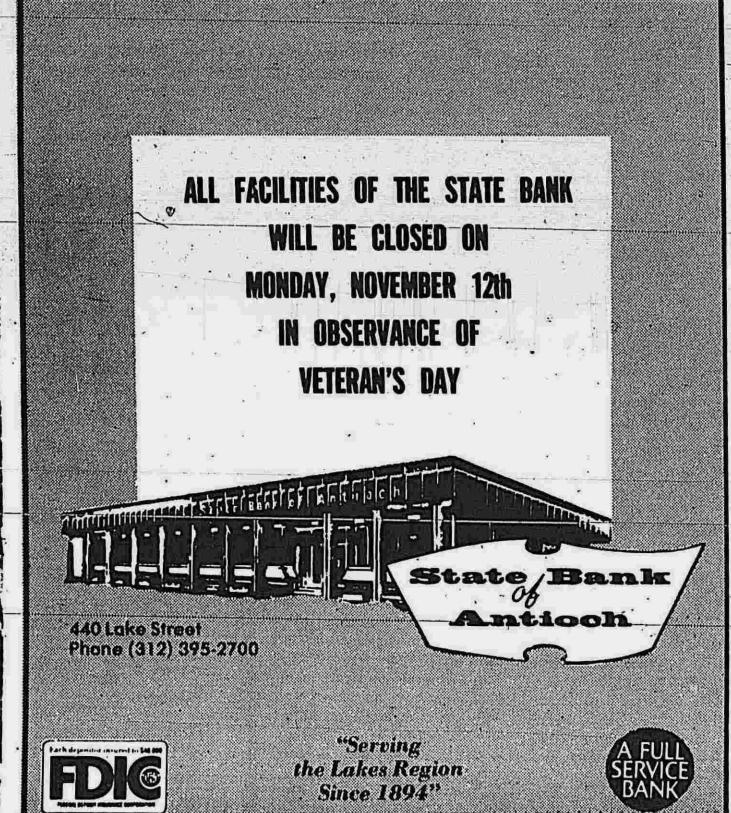

NEW LOOK — Expansive shopping area and clean lines characterize Park Avenue Mall, which will be celebrating grand opening this month. Mall lot is usually filled to capacity, indication of popularity of lovely little shops within. — Photo by Rex Merriweather.

Antioch Twp. Assessment Roll for 1979

OFFICIAL ASSESSMENT LIST

This publication is the official notice to property owners of the 1979 changes in assessed value of land and improvements in the Township, of ANTIOCH. The 1979 assessments as published herein are those determined by the Assessor of Antioch Township.

It is the duty of the Assessor to assess all taxable property on a uniform basis of valuation so that the assessed values of the various properties are a just and equal assessment of such properties according to law.

The assessment roll recording the values of property determines only the distribution of the total tax load among the individual property owners. The Assessor of ANTIOCH Township has no control over the amount of taxes levied, nor the public expenditures. The amount of these assessed values does not determine the amount of your tax bill. The established tax rate does that. The Assessor does not make the rate, he merely finds the value of your property.

ARRANGEMENT OF LIST

If you live in an incorporated area (city or village), your property is listed under the name of your city or village which will be in alphabetical order. Each street within the city or village is also arranged in alphabetical order. Property owners living on the same street will be listed as follows:

First — vacant property or improved property with no street number.

Second — property with street number listed in numerical order (may be approximate).

If you live in an unincorporated area, your property is listed alphabetically by post office and street name. Then property without street numbers will be listed first followed by numbered properties in numerical order.

INFORMATION ON ASSESSMENTS:

Any property owner who has any question in regard to the assessment of his property should call the local Township Assessor's office.

This publication does not reflect reductions for Homestead Exemptions or Veteran's Exemptions. Note that land value and improvement value appear separately and should be added together to arrive at a total assessed value.

Certain of the values published will have been reduced by a Homestead Improvement Exemption. Under present law the reduction in assessed value could be as much as $8330 below actual assessment.

These values are subject to a Board of Review factor as well as a State adjustment factor certified to the County Clerk by the Department of Local Affairs.

Property owners will have 20 days from date of publication within which to file complaints.

Questions regarding the grid system used in determining address numbers should be directed to the Lake County Map Department, the telephone number is 689-6373.

'LA TUNA' — These students from University of Barcelona, Spain, called "La Tuna," will present musical program at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 10, in the Antioch Community High School auditorium. They sing and play traditional and popular music while they accompany themselves on lute, mandolin, and guitar. Their fun-filled antics will entertain Spanish-speaking as well as non Spanish-speaking persons. Comments from other schools in this area who have sponsored same program have all given highly enthusiastic recommendations for group, who also involve audience in performance. ACHS Spanish Club members are selling tickts for $2, or high school office can be called to contact Mrs. Carol Maplethorpe to obtain tickets. Proceeds will be used to provide Spanish scholarships.
